The graphic features a dark blue background with several images: a coat of arms, a portrait of a man in 17th-century attire, a landscape with a pond and trees, and a stone tower. A small inset image shows a stone tower in a garden setting.

John Harvey 1 spent a fortune at Ickwell Bury. Where did the money come from? Why did he tell his son, John Harvey 2, to sell everything?

Why didn't John Harvey 2 sell?

Eventually John Harvey 7 rented the house to Horton School.

He sold Ickwell Bury in 1924.

What happened before and after the Harvey family?

What is the link to a Bedfordshire brewery family and Gertrude Jekyll?

The talk has many images and leads you through the fascinating history of one of the many closely packed estates along the Greensand Ridge.
