

Moggerhanger Park 2 June 2019

Short tours of Repton landscape
11am and 2pm - meet in walled garden

In 1792 the celebrated landscape gardener Humphry Repton produced a Red Book - a report with “before and after” watercolour views - for owner Godfrey Thornton. Much of the layout remains.

Join a 45-minute tour of the surviving Repton landscape, which will include the ice house, rarely open.

£4 for garden restoration funds.
