

SYMPOSIUM Saturday 22nd June 2019 at 10am

THE DESIGNED LANDSCAPES OF BEDFORDSHIRE

Hosted by Bedfordshire Gardens Trust at: Poplars Garden Centre,
(Education Learning Zone), Toddington, LU5 6HE

Incorporating Bedfordshire Local History Association - Annual General Meeting at 9:30am

This year's symposium will be held on Saturday 22nd June 2019. It will be preceded by the Annual General Meeting of the BLHA, starting at 9:30am prompt, details of which will be circulated separately by the Secretary of the BLHA.

The programme of talks and presentations will include:

- The Orchard as part of the Designed Landscape
- The Designed Landscape and the Agas map - what can we find from this resource?
- An update on Flitwick Manor
- From Medieval to Modern: the evolution of designed landscapes in Bedfordshire
- Gertrude Jekyll - her influence in the Bedfordshire Landscape
- The Current Designed Landscape of Bedfordshire - Sharing issues and thoughts to ensure the legacy

Finalised titles of each talk/presentation will be forthcoming by Easter 2019.

See the various booking forms for further details, either to book your place at the Symposium or if requiring a stand or display table, the separate booking form to allow display of your society's materials on the day - note that space will be limited and will be first-come, first served.